THE CIARLA

A COLLEGE ANNUAL

PUBLISHED BY

OF

MUHLENBERG COLLEGE

ALLENTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA MAY, 1918

TO THE STUDENTS AND ALUMNI

OF

MUHLENBERG COLLEGE

Who have answered the call of their country, abandoned their homes and the classroom, and have gone forth to make the world a safer place for us to live in,

WE RESPECTFULLY DEDICATE THIS

CIARLA

T WAS with much fear and trembling that the Junior Class took upon itself the responsibility and the task of publishing a CIARLA this year. A staff had been elected in February, 1917, shortly before the outbreak of the War, and plans had been laid for a CIARLA which was to surpass in every detail the Annuals of all previous classes. But in April, war was declared, all college activities were suspended, and before May the first all but a handful of students had joined either the Army or the Navy, or had enlisted for work in the State Agricultural Forces. Titus V. Druckenmiller, our Business Manager, was among the first who answered the call for volunteers in the regular army. Several of the editors followed his example and work on the 1919 CIARLA had to cease.

Upon the opening of College in September, the vacancies thus created on the CIARLA Board were filled and activities resumed. But now the staff had to face new difficulties, this time in the form of a smaller Student Body, a feeling of uncertainty for the future on the part of everyone of us, and a disastrous ruling adopted by the Allentown Chamber of Commerce forbidding merchants to advertise in our publication. This last almost completely sealed the death warrant of our already doubtful CIARLA. However, thanks to the few faithful advertisers and the loyal support of our friends, sufficient funds were raised to enable us to put out this volume, a very much abbreviated epitome of the past year. But in spite of all these drawbacks, we trust that you may still find some pleasure in reading this WAR ISSUE of the 1919 CIARLA.

THE "CIARLA" STAFF AT WORK

Muhlenberg and the War

Professor John D. M. Brown

IRECTLY war was declared by England in August, 1914, her public schools and colleges furnished the first volunteers to the colors. With Germany bombarding Antwerp, nothing could stop or stay that onward march of men moving from the cricket-fields of Eton and Harrow, from the quiet lawns of Oxford and Cambridge, to the training camps at Sandhurst and Woolwich, and thence to the front. Men who had meant their sons for other callings in life revoked their decision, and yielded to the call of the country.

On the battlefields of France these student-soldiers, disheartened by no defeat, discouraged by no obstacle, appalled by no danger, fought fearlessly for freedom and for fatherland. Many a young subaltern, famous as an athlete in the school from which he came, plunged thru a deadly barrage or into the teeth of a withering machine-gun fire, and waving his men on, stormed a German trench at the cost of his own life. All honor to these brave fellows who "went west." They left the well-loved playing-fields to ship by sea for They knew the misery of the soaking trench,

"And died (uncouthly most) in foreign lands
For some idea but dimly understood
Of an English city never built by hands,
Which love of England prompted and made good."

Likewise, when our country entered the war a year ago, to colleges and preparatory schools fell the honor of the largest enlistments. College men thruout the United States rallied to the colors. They were among the first defenders of democracy. With courage, with enthusiasm, with an exaltation and purity of purpose never equalled, with a devotion to country never excelled, they joined the armies of our great Republic. They counted not the cost. Their country needed them, and they gave their services.

I well recall how our Muhlenberg men were among the first to go. As the days of early spring passed by, we missed this fellow or that fellow in his accustomed place in the schoolroom. And we added his name to our ever increasing Roll of Honor. They went willingly, and gladly we released them. Muhlenberg was proud to do her bit for her country and for the cause of democracy. We sent them East and West, North and South. In that first month of the war, Muhlenberg gave scores of her sons.

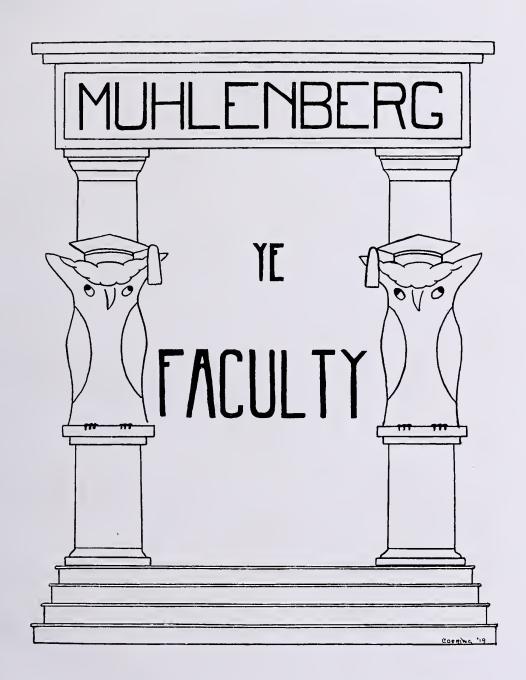

Let us proudly remember those days. Let us enshrine in our hearts the recollection of those who have given new luster to the fame of their Alma Mater. Let us highly resolve that, when this war shall have ended, their names and their deeds shall be written in letters of gold on a suitable and enduring memorial.

Today Princeton boasts of her thousands, and Columbia of her ten thousand in the service of our country. And Muhlenberg can proudly declare that she too has done her duty. No mean number is two hundred out of a few more than a thousand. We are proud of them, our Muhlenberg men in khaki. They are fighting not to enslave, but to free; not to destroy, but to save; not for conquest, but for conscience; not only for us, but for every land and every race. There is honor for their valor; praise for their devotion; gratitude for their self-sacrifice; and immortality for their patriotism. Glory and honor to them, sons of Muhlenberg, wherever they be, in camp of in the trenches on the frontier of freedom. We are sure they will not disappoint our expectations. We know that every man will do his duty to God, to Country, and to Muhlenberg.

Senior History

PRING of 1918—how far away it seemed when we entered on our college course four years ago! And yet it is upon us before we are ready. There are only a few of us now. We do not know how many more will be among the absent when Commencement Day crowns our labors here. We numbered eighty-five when we came—eighty-five young men, strong-hearted, enthusiastic, confident in a future—the largest class that has ever entered Muhlenberg. We will leave these dear old halls, the smallest class in many years. For these are times of war, and 1918 is the first "war class" to graduate from Muhlenberg.

We are proud of our boys who have left us. They have gone cheerfully, bravely, to fight the battles of our country, and we know that they will right nobly uphold the sacred honor of our beloved Alma Mater. May they fare well!

It is not for us now to recall past achievements—athletic victories and literary successes—glorious as those have been. We feel that 1918 has been a class to be proud of, a class to work for, to fight for. We have worked, we have fought, we have sacrificed, we have achieved. But with the succeeding years there has grown within us the realization of something higher than class—the love of the institution which has been to us a kindly foster-mother.

And as each day brings us nearer to the time of departure, we know that we love with a love that is true and deep, such love as will not lightly pass, but endure forever. With those of our boys whom a higher duty has prevented from saying the last farewell with us, we pray that God may bless and prosper our Alma Mater. Alma Mater—thee will we ever sing! To thee our hearts shall cling! Of thee our praises ring—our Muhlenberg!

Junior Class History

HE history of the Class of 1919 is a lengthy record of achievements in all lines. In scholarship, in class contests, in athletics, and in the various other college activities, we demonstrated that we are a well-balanced organization, which is not only capable but ever loyal in its support of our beloved Alma Mater.

As Freshmen we came to Muhlenberg as verdant as all other classes are when they set out on the royal road to learning. We quickly showed our mettle by winning the banner rush, thus far being the only Freshman class that won this contest since its institution. The pole fight was forfeited to us. We lost the football and basketball games by close scores. Varsity athletic teams received valuable support from our class. Eight of the twenty men on the Glee Club were members of our class, and we were also well represented on the Cue and Quill Club. We had proved ourselves to be a potent factor in the life and activities of the college. After we had passed the first milestone in our career at Muhlenberg, we felt that we had accomplished many things, and eagerly looked forward to the achievement of greater things.

The beginning of our Sophomore year found us on hand to act as the official disciplinarians of the newly-arrived Freshmen. Frequently we had to resort to nocturnal chastisement when they failed to toe the line. Our list of inter-class victories was lengthened. Varsity athletics were given ample support. In scholarship as well as in student activities we upheld the dignity of our Alma Mater. The Glee Club's successful season was to a large measure due to Sophomore talent. The calendars and the football programs were by impartial critics declared to be the best ever published at Muhlenberg. Last Spring when our nation entered the war, a considerable number of our men flocked to the colors. This was followed by a general exodus to the farms to aid in raising enuf food stuffs to make victory certain. As loyal as we had proved ourselves to be to our Alma Mater, we proved ourselves to be to that greater institution—our country.

Our return to college last fall for our Junior year was not very auspicious. Our numbers had been thinned during the summer thru enlistments and the first draft, so that many of our former class-mates, who were ever loyal in the support of the class and the college, were not here to continue their studies. It appeared that 1919 would be a total nonentity. Far from it! 1919 came back as strong as ever. The varsity athletics again received valuable support, as also did the other college activities.

The Pagan-Minister football game was played on a mud-soaked field last November, and resulted in a 25–0 victory for the Pagans. The Ministers retaliated, however, by defeating the forces of darkness in basketball. Score:

As our Junior year is drawing to its close we give this volume as a legacy to our venerated Alma Mater and her noble sons, wherever they may be. Even tho we were beset on every hand with difficulties, and our ideal of a CIARLA could not be realized, still we hope that this volume may be a souvenir of our college career, and ever turn our thots to thee, O Muhlenberg!

Historian.

Edwin G. Arner Summit Hill, Pa.

"Eddie"

Born at Summit Hill, Pa., June 28, 1898. Prepared at Summit Hill High School and Allentown Prep. Entered Muhlenberg 1915. Classieal Course. Phi Kappa Tau. Art Editor, The 1919 CIARLA. Honor Group (2). Associate Editor Muhlenberg Weekly. Assistant Basketball Manager. Class Seeretary (1). Class President (3). Class Basketball (1), (2). Captain (3). Class Football (1), (2), (3). A. P. S. Club. K. K. K. Glee Club (3). Lutheran. Democrat. Teaching.

Girls, isn't Eddie a handsome ehap? Yes, and he is so modest about it-you know, the quiet sort. You never know what is in that smile and that fine, unassuming manner; for Eddie keeps his own eounsels. However, he has the happy faculty of getting into everything that eomes along, and getting in well. Eddie never does things by halves. At present he is our honored president. In loyalty to class he has all of us 'stopped." Along musical lines Eddie is SOME guitar player, and in chapel singing he is no less profieient. Altho he has never admitted it, yet it is known that he has had several flirtatious episodes. Who, where, and when are state secrets. So, girls here's your chance, and good luek to you!

Lloyd M. Bellis Gratz, Pa.

"Shylock"

Born at Gratz, Pa., January 5, 1894 Prepared at Millersville State Normal School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Assistant Editor-in-Chief, The 1919 ClARLA, Associate Editor, Muhlenberg Weekly. Editor 1917 Calendar Student Council (3); Secretary Class Historian. S. P. U. E. Round Table (3); Secretary Press Club (2). Class Football (3). Lutheran. Democrat. Teaching.

Alas, if the walls had tongues and ears! Bellis won a place in the halls of fame ehiefly thru his eontribution to dormitory folk lore. In faet his supply of good stories, if published, would furnish the dorm students with ample entertainment for the next half eentury. The kitchen is his particular sphere of influence, but his ability as a narrator has won for him a welcome everywhere, even in the eollege library. Bellis' eareer as a fusser was rudely interrupted in our Sophomore year. Yes, he goes to church on Sunday nights, but onee he went out on his eustomary Sunday evening date and eame back wtih a severe pain under his belt. Two days later poor Bellis had to have his appendix removed. Ye fussers, beware!

Frank M. Brown Auburn, Pa.

"Brownie"

Born at Norristown, Pa., February 7, 1897. Prepared at Pottsville High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Alpha Tau Omega. Photographer 1919. ClARLA. Tennis Manager (3). Scrub Football (1), (2), (3). Class Football (1), (2), (3). Class Track (2). Band (1), (2). Orchestra. (1), (2). M. C. A. Knutte Klub. K. K. Lutheran. Independent. Photographer.

This dilatory young gentleman ealled down upon himself the wrath of the faculty by coming late to every class in the first week of his eollege eareer, and has not been able to overeome the habit. In faet he has never been known to come to elass in time. Frank used to be quite well known socially in a certain Irish district in Catasauqua, but since the draft ealled so many prospective grooms away, he has been able to form a number of entangling alliances in Allentown. "Brownie" has always been loyal to his class and eollege in athleties, but he displays his greatest proficiency in the commissary department. His capacity is enormous and it is rumored that he was largely responsible for the increase in the price of board at the beginning of the year.

Mahlon F. Cope Main St., Perkasie, Pa.

"Copie"

Born at Perkasie, Pa., June 25, 1897. Prepared at Perkasie High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1914. Classical Course. Perkasie High Club; President. Bucks County Club. College Band (1), (2). College Orchestra (1), (2). Class Football (2), (3). Lutheran. Non-partisan. Ministry,

This unassuming member of the "Curtail Club" hails from South Perkasie-that's the metropolis situated not so far from Allentown, only they don't always bother to put the name on the map. Cope became famous as a football player when he played left guard against the husky Lebanon giant in the Pagan-Minister game. Altho quite stocky he was able to waddle around that grimy field and make things hum in his vicinity. He is also a fusser at times and always defends the weaker sex and prides himself on the faet that one week after the delivery of his oration in favor of "Woman Suffrage" the bill was passed by the men "higher up" at Washington. But Cope is sincere in all his work and we wish him the best of success in the future.

D. Ulam Druckenmiller Sellersville, Pa.

"Druckie"

Born at Salfordville, Pa., October 4, 1896. Prepared at Sellersville High School and Allentown Prep. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Student Representative to A. A. Class Vice-President (3). Class Treasurer (2). Varsity Track (1), (2). Varsity Cross-Country (1), (2), (3): "M" man. Class Football (1), (2), (3). Class Baseball (2), (3). A. P. S. Club. Glee Club (3). Band (1), (2). Dish-Washer in Commons (3). The College Tailor. Lutheran. Democrat. Ministry.

Mr. "Buteh McDevitt" Druckenmiller first won distinction thru his pronounced "social trend" or his unwillingness to let eollege work interfere with his social activities. He is seldom to be seen in the dorms at night and makes it a point to attend every social function within a radius of fifty milcs. His nickname is a survival of a notorious sorority dance given in our Sophomorc year. It is asserted on good authority that "McDevitt" borrowed everything he wore that evening from his good-natured classmates with the exception of his hose supporters. As a musician he plays anything from a mandolin to a sweet potato flute. As an athlete he has worked hard to uphold the dignity of his Alma Mater; but as a social lion he is absolutely "irresistible and irresponsible." Oh my, ean the rest!

Harry Russell Dubbs 29 S. 6th St., Quakertown, Pa.

"Dunlap"

Born in Denver, Colo., December 23, 1897. Prepared at Quakertown High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Alpha Tau Omega. Varsity Cross Country (2), (3). Class Baseball (1), (2). Class Track (1), (2). Class Football (1), (2), (3). Bueks Country Club. Cue and Quill (2), (3). Reformed. Democrat. Law.

Dubbs, erstwhile Dunlap, is recognized as one of the most heartless lady-killers in the Junior class. He generally books his dates a month ahead of time and it is rumored that one fair damsel was on the point of jumping into the Delaware because she was unable to break in on his schedule. Harry is always busy but seldom on the job as far as college work is concerned. He has the unique distinction of never eoming to breakfast on time. The last one to leave the Commons in the morning usually sees a tall, stalwart youth rushing across the campus at a breakneck pace toward the dining room. This is Dubbs, the most notorious waiter in the Commons. A rare combination of action and inefficiency. Dunlap, have mercy!

Paul James Fogel Nazareth, Pa.

"Birdie"

Born at Hecktown, Pa., April 9, 1899. Prepared at Allentown Preparatory School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915 Classical Course. Phi Kappa Tau. Sophomore Football Program Committee. Class Basketball (3). Class Football (3). A P. S. Club. Scientific Club. Lutheran. Republican. Teaching.

Doon-a Wet-ah, this is some Fogel—a gorgeous plumage, melodious voice, dainty appetite, exquisite billing, choice cooing, and all! "Birdies" feathers are never ruflfed and his "outward show" is always par excellence. But this is not the sum total of our Hecktonian lion's accomplishments. Paul is an expert biologist. There is nothing in this delightful science he does not know. There is not a cat, dog, reptile, toad, or fish within the radius of five miles that has not felt his knife. Then, too, James is quite a social figure, especially in a dress suit. But it is to be lamented that after years of conscientious endeavor, he recently east off the object of his first love. In consequence, Paul is no longer his former self for he has solemnly consecrated himself to a life of eternal celibacy. But wait!

Arthur H. Getz 817 Prospect Ave., Scranton, Pa.

"Minister"

Born in Scranton, Pa., October 14, 1897. Prepared at Allentown Preparatory School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Phi Kappa Tau Assistant Cheer Leader. Editor, Sophomore Football Program. Class Tennis (1). Class Football (2), (3). Class Basketball (2) (3). A P. S. Club K. K. Lutheran. Non-Partisan. Ministry.

Always working, always forcible, always fresh and always talking, describe Arthur from the coal fields fairly accurately; for Getz is one of the real hustlers of our class. His full name, by the way, is Arthur Henry George Getz, with the emphasis on the Henry. In addition to being a hustler, "Minister" is a very loquacious student. His arguments and bombasts have tried many a staunch heart. In the most heated debate, however, Arthur has never been known to "gct sore." As a basketball player he cannot be surpassed. Occasionally, he delivers lectures at parishes and Luther League conventions. In the drawing-room he is Beau Brommel himself. But his greatest achievement is as cheer leader. In this capacity he is all arms and legs. Nine RAYS for Getz!

19 CIARLA 19 111

Gustave Charles Goering 713 Saratoga St., Utica, N. Y.

"Glenn"

Born in Utica, N. Y., November 25, 1895, Prepared at Utica Free Academy. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Phi Kappa Tau. Associate Editor, The 1919 CIARLA. Assistant Manager Football. Varsity Track (1), Class Track (1), (2), (3). Class Football (3). M. C. A. College Band (2). Chairman Junior War Savings Committee. Lutheran. Non-Partisan. Ministry.

Most of us know who "Johnnie" Bauman's star mathematician was in our Freshman year, or if there is one who does not, let him remain in ignorance no longer. Here he is—"Geometry" Goering! His sueeess in this line and the faet that Charles is Aetion personified may aeeount for his present position of football manager. But "Glenn" has more than one outstanding feature. He is a Greek seholar. He swears he never used a "pony" until it became too difficult, It remains to be proved that he is not the best drummer in the college. Many of us never knew we had an artist in our midst until this year. But quietly, Charles had been using all his time in drawing, and would only take "time out" to eare for his "Kid" downtown. And every day, in order to be in good eondition for this strenuous job, he would take arduous exercise in the gym. Nevertheless, it was worth it, wasn't it, Charles?

Myer J. Grossman 636 N. 2nd St., Allentown, Pa.

"Professor"

Born at Allentown, Pa., April 24, 1899. Prepared at Allentown High Sch. ol Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Allentown High School Club. Cue and Quill Club. Hebrew. Democrat. Theatricals.

If the road to heaven lay via the dance floor, our friend, the "Professor," would already have one foot in his eelestial abode. For Myer danees on Monday night, he dances on Tuesday night, and he goes to Mealey's the rest of the week. And not being satisfied with that he gives daneing lessons in the Dormitories every afternoon. But now the strange thing is that Grossman is also a student, and a student of no mean ability, as we ean see by the faet that Myer thot four years was too long to wait to get a degree. So by eramming and by a generous use of bluff-which only one of his kind ean get away with—"Professor" will graduate with the elass of Nineteen Hundred and Eighteen. But even that is not all, for our illustrious friend is also an actor, and it is along these lines that he hopes to win renown. Here's hoping that a seeond Shakespeare has eome to judgment!

Homer H. Heller 1610 Chew St., Allentown, Pa.

"Gussie"

Born at Allentown, Pa., October 6, 1898. Prepared at Allentown High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Scientific Course. Phi Kappa Tau. Allentown High School Club. Class Football (2), (3). Class Basketball (2), (3). Class Track (2). College Band (1), (2). Lutheran. Democrat. Law.

Always happy, not easily ruffled, but ready for fun at any time are some of the characteristics of "Gussie"! Homer is proud of two things —his nickname and the fact that he is quite a shark at pool. Then too, he is famous as a poultry raiser, chickens being his specialty. And to further his intcrests in this line, he takes regular week-end trips. I wonder where! Heller has also made his mark in athletics by helping to defeat the Ministers in football. In basketball he was known as the wrecking crew and here he was quite successful, for he limped two weeks after the game. But recently a great change has come over this lad of caprices. And why? Because "Gussie" has renounced all his former dissipations and is now aspiring to win fame as a track man. We wish you luck!

T. E. Werner Jentsch 216 Fairview St., Riverside, N. Y.

"Jerner"

Born at Waterbury, Conn., August 27, 1897. Prepared at Peabody (Pittsburgh) High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Associate Editor, The 1919 CIARLA. Business Manager Muhlenberg Weekly (3); Assistant Manager (2). Secretary, M. C. A. (3). Cue and Quill Club (1), (2). Lutheran. Republican. Ministry.

Scientists claim that blonds will in a few generations disappear; consequently we are glad to have among our number one of these fast-disappearing models. But "Jerner" is not only an unusual person in the color of his hair but also in the way he has it cut. The style is especially designed for the gentle passage of stroking, feminine hands. Yes, it has actually gone as far as that, for when Jentsch is not occupied with his studies, he is out with the fair sex. When he gets the "blues" he takes a week-end trip to Boyertown to get a "Remedy." Werner is the able business manager of the Weekly and we count it to his credit that an Allentown merchant recently mistook him for a Jew.

George E. Klick Pine Grove, Pa.

"Gee"

Born at Pine Grove, Pa., August 25, 1897. Prepared at Pine Grove High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Delta Theta. Class Football (3). M. C. A. K.K. K. Lutheran. Democrat, Teaching.

This handsome boy is a scientific wrestler. We all agree with him that he was cut out for wrestling, for his Sophomore record stands and his room in Rhoads Hall still shows traces of mighty conflicts. "Gee" is primarily interested in the fair sex. He is very much enamored of a girl in Lebanon, whose picture, he claims, compares favorably with that of any star movie actress. George answers all telephone calls in order to pick up a conversation and in this way he once in a while manages to land a date. He is a great student of English, and we feel sure he will succeed in teaching Hardy's "Tess of the D'Urbervilles," and Ibsen's "Ghosts," in some Girls' High School.

Luther B. Klick Pine Grove, Pa.

"El"

Born at Pine Grove, Pa., June 19, 1894. Prepared at Keystone State Normal School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Delta Theta. Manager Class Baseball (2). Class Secretary (3). K. K. Lutheran. Non-Partisan. Ministry.

"EI" is also the hero of many battles. Invariably he is the referec when Shupp and Stettler have a row over the eonstruction of a Greek verb or the distinction between eategorematic syneategorematic words. During his Sophomore year "El" read all the stories of Dc Maupassant and Boeeaeeio, and always took great delight in telling them very vividly to his friends. Luther also manifested his athletic ability in the Pagan-Minister game, where he very affectionately embraced the ministers instead of taekling them. That was the most natural thing for him to do because he frequently goes out on dates which invariably are of a rather heavy character. But "El" is also a very good student and we predict for him a bright future in his chosen profession.

Vernon L. Kemmerer Slatington, Pa.

"Butch"

Born at Slatington, Pa., September 17, 1897. Prepared at Slatington High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Scientific Course. Reformed. Republican. Chemist.

This is to introduce the portly gentleman from "Somcwhere near Slatington." He has the real distinction of being the only real fat man in the class-a distinction he may well be proud of in these days of Hooverization. He has many achievements, but they are of an inward trend, as manifested by the aforesaid statement. But next to candy and cigars, "Butch" values science as no other man can. In fact, Kemmerer is always at one of two places—down in the locker room playing cards or in the laboratory breaking test tubes in creating that Twentieth Century gas known as "bull." This he spreads promiscuously as an effective camouflage before charging the trenches in a Religion exam. But despite all this, Kemmerer has proved to be an inseparable friend, an ardent debater, and a fond admirer of the country lasses.

Carl Jacob Knauss 333 N. 7th St., Allentown, Pa.

"Naus"

Born in Allentown, Pa., May 7, 1898. Prepared at Allentown High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Scientific Course. A. H. S. Club. Class Treasurer (3). Evangelical. Republican. Teaching

"Naus" was one of the few sturdy men of our class on whom social attractions had no hold. However, in the beginning of our Junior year, under the influence of some evil demon-presumably Cupid—he swayed from this straight and narrow path. And for a time we feared that he would follow the worldly ways of the many and be lost to the ranks of the righteous few. But "Naus" was too wide a man to pursue such an uncertain career and today he has reformed and is again marching forward with virile strides. His chief enjoyment now is riding on the rear platform of the "Muhlenberg Limited" and taking in the scenery from the Square to the college. What time remains, is spent in caring for his Sunday School class and working in the laboratory. For "Naus" is a student and is one of Professor Bailey's stars.

Luther Adolph Krouse 335 S. 5th St., Reading, Pa.

"Turk"

Born in Reading, Pa., April 28, 1897. Prepared at Reading High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Phi Kappa Tau. Editor-in-Chief, The 1919 CIARLA. Delegate to Intercollegiate Oratorical Union. Treasurer, M. C. A. (3). Varsity Cross Country Team; "M" man (3). Class President (2). Class Vice-President (1). Round Table (3). Cue and Quill (1), (2), (3). S. P. U. E. Berks County Club. Class Football (3). Freshman and Sophomore Honor Groups. Winner of Sophomore Prize. Lutheran. Non-Partisan. Ministry.

Luther, better known as "Turk," eomes from that prosperous Dutch city of Berks County where the ehief article of diet is "pretzels mit beer." Fortunately, he seems to have escaped the "kultur" of his native eity, for he couldn't get drunk if he wanted to. But Krouse is a poet of no mean ability. He considers "On Eighth Street South of Penn" his best work. This poem is built around a eertain Beeehwood Belle, but whether she is a product of his classical imagination or a real irresistible bit of femininity is an interesting question. "Turk" is a good student and when he is not discussing the psychology of love, or the absolute eonstancy of woman, you ean be sure that he is doing something for the advancement of his Alma Mater or himself.

Raymond A. Kline 104 Lehman St., Lebanon, Pa.

"Mucker"

Born at Kutztown, Pa., February 4, 1897. Prepared at Lebanon High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915 Classical Course. Delta Theta. Cue and Quill (1), (2), (3). Class Football (1), (2), (3). Class Monitor (1), Lutheran. Progressive. Law.

The Tall Cedar of Lebanon is one of the best athletes of our elass. He really never accomplished much in class contests since he always had a sprained ankle or something to report before a big game. "Mueker" is a good eonversationalist and is at his best when he is explaining logie to Kemmerer and Stettler. He is blessed with an exceptionally good line of the species Taurus. A little girl, 'a pack of eards, a pipe and P. A., are, according to his idea, the essentials of a eollege education. In his Freshman year Kline shipped his trunk to Albright, but for reasons of "Gussy" Heller's he eame back to Muhlenberg. Today he is a loyal son of Muhlenberg and a devoted member of our elass.

W. Bruce MacIntosh 415 DeKalb St., Norristown, Pa.

"Mac"

Born at Spring City, Pa., January 13, 1898. Prepared at Norristown High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Phi Kappa Tau. Student Council (3). Track Manager (3). This is he! The blustering, hustling, indefatigable MaeIntosh! He ean orate with ponderous dignity; he ean assume the role of Cohen in the most comic manner; or manage any team or elub to perfection. But alas, this is not all. There is another side to "Mae" where he is just as assiduous as in any of these other eollege aetivities. You say he looks reserved, tho. Well, that may be true in a certain sense of the wordin that he is reserved for one person. Why, three or four nights a week this nature-loving youth ean be seen cutting across the campus with either a Bible or a volume of Shakespeare under his arm departing for regions unvisited by other students! And when does he return? Oh, well, that all depends upon the weather or the Emaus trolley. But then that is an interesting question there, Mr. MaeIntosh,

"Gus"

Born at Warren, Pa., 1899. Prepared at Coshocton High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course, Alpha Tau Omega. Assistant Adervising Manager, The 1919. ClARLA. Assistant Business Manager, Muhlenberg Weekly. College Band (2). Press Club (2). Class Treasurer (3). Class Monitor (2). Varsity Cross Country Team; "M" man (3). Class Football (1), (2), (3). Class Track (1), (2). Class Basketball (3). Lutheran. Non-Partisan. Ministry.

"His head was peaked and sparse was the wool that was allowed to grow thereon." Yea verily, behold this fine product of the Middle-West! You beautifie smile wherewith his eountenance is draped covereth a multitude of sins among which are his spasmodie eraze for "the light fantastie," and a capacity that nearly equals that of his room-mate. Gus never beeomes ruffled but accomplishes much in a quiet easy way. He is also of such a retiring nature (especially about midnight) that the famous Allentown beauties have not as yet charmed him with their wiles. In his relations with the weaker sex, his motto has been, "Variety is the spiee of life." Despite all his faults we feel assured that Gus will be found in the first row when the last trumpet blast calls.

William M. Muthard Boyertown, Pa.

"Billv"

Born at Colebrookdale, Pa. July 24, 1898. Prepared at Boyertown High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. M. C. A. (1), (2), (3).: Vice-President (3). Berks County Club. Lutheran. Teaching. Democrat.

Here, friends, is our philosophieal farmer. The faet that "Billy" was a seer was revealed to us early in our Freshman year when he, with wonderful dexterity, would draw the Dean from Cieero to discussions far too deep for ordinary mortals to follow. (But how thankful are we to thee, O, William, for those precious moments of sleep!). By this time, as you ean imagine, "Billy" has become very proficient in his line so that even Dr. Haas and Prof. Horn fall vietims to his irresistible tongue. But with the exception of this passion for settling all educational, economical, social, and religious problems, he is harmless. In faet so busy is he in his solutions that even the prettiest Allentown girl fails to attract him. But then a certain pieture on "Willie's" dresser tells us he has 'friends' in Boyertown, also.

James F. McGovern 457 N. 2nd St., Steelton, Pa.

"Terry"

Born at Elmira. N. Y., September 11, 1893. Prepared at Steelton High School and Allentown Preparatory School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Philosophical Course. Delta Theta. Varsity Football (1), (2), (3), "M" man (1), (2), (3). A. P. S. Club. Catholic. Non-Partisan. Teaching.

This will serve to introduce our friend "Terry" McGovern. We can easily imagine that among his first ehildhood toys was a football, mauled about in an open field in Steelton. This town, by the way, is the large eity near Harrisburg and is noted for its pretty girls, one of whom has already eaptured the affections of this stalwart youth. At eollege "Mae" has had a eraving for truth and a knowledge of religion that is well-nigh insatiable. His interests along these lines are manifested in his praise of and attendanee at the lectures of Dr. Haas. "Mae" is also one of our most versatile football artists and has won his "M" three years in suecession. He is speedy and shows a superabundance of grit and judgment in earrying the pigskin. With these eharaeteristies in the battle of life, Mae's suecess is inevitable.

Stewart H. Nase Almont, Pa.

"Satan"

Born at Almont, Pa., November 16, 1897. Prepared at Sellersville High School. Entered Muhlenberg. 1915. Classical Course. Phi Kappa Tau. Business Manager, 1917 Calendar. Advertising Manager. The 1919 CIARLA. Knutte Klub. S. P. U. E. Class Football (3). Lutheran. Democrat. Teaching.

That tortoise-shelled bespeetaeled visage you see above belongs to "Satan." You say the name fits the face? Without a doubt! That's how he got the name. However, what's in a name? A rose by any other name would smell as sweet, and a boy with any other eognomen would be just as much of a flirt. "Satan" better known at home and at Phoenixville as Stewart, is a faithful worker and a good student. Aside from his books and pedagogieal rampages, he always finds time to get his hands into the business end of the Calendars or CIARLA, or something like that. With his wonderful eombination of organizing, teaching, business ability and horse-sense, he will be a great man if he lives long enuf.

Grant E. Phillips Shoemakersville, Pa.

"Phipps"

Born at West Leesport, Pa., November 15, 1893. Prepared at Perkiomen School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Berks County Club. Delta Theta. Perkiomen Club. Class Football (3). Class Baseball (1), (2). Lutheran. Independent. Ministry.

Just as in Biblieal times a prophet was never appreciated in his own country, so today "Phipps" ability as a baseball player has never been given the proper recognition at Muhlenberg. And likewise it is true that "the evil that men do lives after them, but the good is oft interred with their bones." Grant will leave us next year and we fear will only be remembered as an ardent admirer of Baeehus and an authority on pinoehle and poker. But that "Phipps" held the whole Minister line in the football game, that he was the worthy viee-president of the Berks County Club, and that there was no eatcher at Muhlenberg who could hold his eurves, are faets which eannot be denied and the faets which will ever redound to his glory.

Charles F. Reichardt 58 E. Fulton St., Ephrata, Pa.

"Brother"

Born at Ephrata, Mareh 29, 1893, Prepared at Franklin and Marshall Aeademy. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classieal Course. Student Council (3). Assistant Song Leader (3). Glee Club (1), (3). Cue and Quill. S. P. U. E. Class President (1). Class Treasurer (1). Class Vice-President (3). Varsity Cross-Country Squad (3). Class Football (3). Lutheran. Non-Partisan. Ministry.

"How dear to my heart are the songs of my room-mate!" Yes, and "how dear to my roommate is the heart of a school-marm!" These two sentiments must go hand in hand for how often do we hear Charlie humming sweet lullabys and sentimental love songs. He says he is practising for a concert and readily would we believe him for "Brother" Charles is one of the pillars of our Glee Club. Only—we know that his success there was due to his touching rendition of an original ditty entitled, "Somewhere in France is a Swilly," and not to the rag-time which graces the piano of a certain educational center on Linden Street. But passing on then Charlie studies and if his success hereafter is to be measured by his sincerity in all he undertakes, you may rest assured that Charlie's future is safe.

Harold J. Romig 223 N. 10th St., Allentown, Pa.

"Rummage"

Born in Allentown, Pa. Prepared at Allentown High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Alpha Tau Omega. Student Council. Assistant Advertising Manager, The 1919 CIARLA. Class Treasurer (3). Knutte Klub. A. H. S. Club.; Secretary. Reformed. Republican. Ministry.

This serious-looking young gentleman happens to be Harold Romig, no other than our old friend "Rummage." He is first of all a business man and his greatest virtue is his disposition to mind his own business. Aside from this his main diversion is Greek. Thru his perseverance and riding ability he has distinguished himself in this course. You may not believe it, but Greek art has impressed itself on him and he is gradually discovering the beauties of the fair sex. Even this manifestation is however, not very pronounced and direct inference is our only means of attack, but we are becoming more and more familiar with this method after a semester of logic under Dr. Wright. But unassuming Harold has won for himself the respect of his classmates and is always willing to do something for his class or his college.

Dalton F. Schwartz 37 N. 17th St., Allentown, Pa.

"Al"

Born in Allentown, April 21, 1899. Prepared at Allentown Preparatory School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Scientific Course. Alpha Tau Omega Glee Club (1), (2), (3); Leader (3). A. P. S. Club; Treasurer (3). United Evangelical. Non-Partisan. Business.

The youthful Padcrcwski himself could not be compared favorably with this musical genius of rare technique. Indeed his gymnastic performances upon the ivory keys have a psychological influence upon the temperamental souls of his fellow members on the Glee Club. It is even said that this worshipper of Apollo has the rare distinction of producing melodious strains with the digits of his obsolete hands, while sitting on the top of the piano linked in the arms of love. Like Orpheus he moves men and beasts, the birds in the air, and the fish in the deep. But speaking of beasts reminds us of the first time "Al" beheld a cat in its pickled condition—but wait! Perhaps I shouldn't say any more, for Dalton is a most versatile student, and we know his future success is certain without mentioning that.

Paul W. Shankweiler 131 N. West St., Allentown, Pa.

"Shank"

Born in Allentown, November 9, 1897. Prepared at Allentown High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Philosophical Course. Assistant Advertising Manager, The 1919 CIARLA. Allentown High School Club. Lutheran. Non-Partisan. Law.

Aren't pictures deceiving? Judging from the above you would take this specimen to be a quiet, unassuming, extremely modest representative of an ideal college community. But isn't it strange tho, that so many of these apparently quiet boys are such lions among the ladies and have such wonderful noise-making capacities when among their fellow-seekers-afterknowledge. Why, that expression on his face is all camouflage! "Shank" is always ready for mischief and this is invariably topped off by some hearty talking and heated arguing. But that is not all to "Shank." Beneath this external frivolous nature is some real "stuff." "Shank" is going to study law and with his natural propensities along this line we can see nothing but success awaiting him.

Floyd E. Shupp Brodheadsville, Pa.

"B. S."

Born in Gilbert, Pa., August 17, 1894. Prepared at Fairview Academy. Entered Muhlenberg. 1915. Classical Course. Alpha Tau Omega. Lutheran. Democrat. Ministry.

When we were Freshmen we all that that Shupp was taking the B. S. eourse and eonsequently we learned to eall him "B. S." But now we have become convinced that Shupp is not a B. S. man. Altho for a number of years Floyd was a country school teacher in Monroe eounty, his highest ambition now is to become a minister! But then wonders do not eease. Shupp was very popular at the beginning of our Junior year when a number of Freshmen knew him as the well-known pitcher of the New York Giants. But recently his popularity as a baseball player has deelined, even as his fame as an orator sinee that memorable day when he dropped oratory, first, on aecount of a sore throat, and seeondly, 'tis whispered, he had eold feet.

Walter J. Smith 420 Wabash Ave., Toledo, Ohio

"Smittie"

Born in Toledo, Ohio. Prepared at Allentown Preparatory School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Alpha Tau Omega. Business Manager, The 1919 CIARLA. Wota Club. A. P. S. Club. Round Table (3). Class Basketball (1), (3). Lutheran. Independent. Ministry.

With his hidden smile, eorn-eob pipe, and a mania for tin-foil, "Pop" Smith is quite a striking eharaeter. He has kept his elass eontinually worried that they could not plant the ivy. Altho Walter is not strong for Easton girls, he daily looks for those letters from Toledo. But "Smittie" is a busy man, traveling regularly with the "Rusty Five." For besides directing the CIARLA exchequer, he fills engagements for parties, danees, and vaudeville aets, furnishing elevating music on his guitar. Besides all that "Pop" has such a rare brand of sociability at a stag Ithat the party is not complete without him. If he is not heard playing his guitar or seen playing eards you may be sure that you will find him in the library looking at the art of the good old masters.

Russell D. Snyder 283 Union St., Millersburg, Pa.

"Schnitz"

Born at Berrysburg, Pa., June 14, 1898 Prepared at Millersburg High School Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Alpha Tau Omega Class President (2). Class Secretary (1). Round Table (3). S. P. U. E. Freshman and Sophomore Honor Groups. Associate Editor, The 1919 CIARLA. Lutheran. Independent Ministry.

This representative from the banks of the Susquehanna spent his Freshman year under the tutelage of Harry A. S. E. H. Herman, whose restraining influence kept him on the straight and narrow way. In the beginning of his Sophomore year he left this epitome of kindly advice and has eonsequently become a person of notoricty. Among his social achievements are the following: he is recognized as the prinee of poker players; spent his Sophomore Easter vaeation teaching a girl to play solitaire and lost his appendix thru it; was lured to Mealey's Dancing Academy by a blue-eyed Venus last Thanksgiving; smokes on "special oeeasions;" gocs as far as Sellersville to attend a party; and attends all the A. C. W. social functions. In view of all these attainments we prediet for him a successful future in the ministry.

Wayne Dewey Stettler 356 First St., Slatington, Pa.

"Stetts"

Born at Slatington, May 3, 1898. Prepared at Slatington High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course. Class Football (3). Lutheran. Non-Partisan. Medicine.

In this brief sketch it is utterly impossible to give a fair estimate of our friend from Slatington. In his Freshman year "Stetts" was a day-student and hence he was more or less obscure. In his Sophomore year "Upsilon" decided that the college would benefit more by his living in the dorms. At any rate, Wayne's reputation as a skilled logician and student of religion began at that time. In his Junior year "Umlaut's" orbit has gravitated violently towards Venus. This planetary attraction has become so marked that Stettler was forced to consult a sky-pilot of Pine Grove to avoid an eclipse. Well, Dewey, here's hoping that her path will cross yours in a favorable conjunction! Do you think so?

Leonard M. Utz
312 E. Northampton St., Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"Yutch"

Born in Wilkes-Barre, January 8, 1897. Prepared at Wilkes-Barre High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Scientific Course. Phi Kappa Tau. K. K. K. S. P. U. E. Class Football (3). Class Basketball (3). Lutheran. Republican. Law.

'Yutch' hails from the capital of the Koal Krackers Klub, where his past is buried twelve hundred feet deep in the earth as far as we can determine. He has two great periods of activity each year-at mid-years and at finals. During these periods he is very studious and never stays out to eleven o'clock as he sometimes does during the rest of the year. The fellows greatly admire him as a model ward-politician, but regard him as a hopeless failure in regard to the weaker sex. Pcrhaps he has a past! Who knows but that he was once madly in love and the object of his affections cruelly ripped out all the teeth of his love with a "Pine not!" However, we'll prophesy he will be a great criminal lawyer some day in spite of this weakness.

Earle H. Weinsheimer 454 Gordon St., Allentown, Pa.

"Nigger"

Born in Allentown, July 19, 1897. Prepared at Allentown High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Classical Course, Phi Kappa Tau. Allentown High School. Freshman and Sophomore Honor Groups. Lutheran. Republican. Teaching.

Talk, a nervous laugh; talk, a vicious jab in the ribs, and some more talk make us keenly aware of the presence of a tall, gaunt, sallowvisaged youth. Imbued with the ambition of a Caesar and the political wisdom of a Penrose, "Nigger"-sort of a burnt-cork nicknamemaintains his place as a leader in scholastic affairs. He is an actual prodigy in procuring honors, sharing that distinction with the honorable Mr. Pickwick of "Pickwick Papers" fame. Earle is commonly known as a "Math" shark, and presents a familiar figure as he loudly expounds his theorems with that characteristic Israelitish gesture. Confidentially tho, all his inspiration is no doubt due to his inseparable box of "Camels," and since his appearance in full dress, we may attribute some of it to Cupid! Who knows?

Mark A. Wetherhold 715 N. 9th St., Allentown, Pa.

"Mark"

Born at Hynemansville, Pa., November 30, 1896. Prepared at Allentown High School. Entered Muhlenberg, 1915. Scientific Course. Delta Theta. Knutte Klub. A. H. S. Club; Vice-President (3). Reformed. Republican. Biology.

Sleek, black hair, a pair of eagle eyes and a copper complexion announce the presence of Mark—a very Biblical name for an epicure. At first appearance Mark is the fac-simile of an American Indian; but when that abdominal region is noted-well, he is a Pennsylvania Dutchman. Mark is a staunch advocate of "Dwell Here and Prosper," as is readily verified by the owners of the various rathskellars in town. From these later experiences he has attained the enviable position of an expert on "Hop-juice" and "Doggies." Like Jack Horner, Mark can dispatch a whole pie at once. Rumor also has it that this youthful Allentonian is taking collateral work at the Nurses College, And as Mark would say, "Who has a better right?" Well, anyhow, it's a good thing to have a nurse in the family, isn't it?

Frederick H. Worsinger, Jr. 1469 N. Tenth St., Reading, Pa.

"Freddie"

Born in Philadelphia, Pa., December 3, 1896, Prepared at Reading High School Entered Muhlenberg, 1914. Classical Course. Delta Theta. Associate Editor, The 1919 CIARLA. Student Council. Round Table (3). Cue and Quill (1), (2), (3).; Cast (1). College Orchestra (1). College Band (1). Berks County Club. Class Secretary (3). Varsity Baseball, Assistant Manager (2); Manager (3). Class Football (2), (3). Class Basketball (1), (2), (3). Sophomore Honor Group. Lutheran. Non-Partisan. Teaching.

Happy, handsome "Freddie" hails from Berks County where his ability as a farmer is undisputed. Besides, "Freddie" is far-sighted and select in his choice, in whatever that may be. For his attentions have been concentrated since he came to college, and not without avail for his "stand-in." is absolutely immovable and unshakeable. "Freddie" distinguished himself largely in the Pagan-Minister football game. He laid down the bar to the Pagans and carried the ball around the ends like a second "Kid" Weber. After that game "Freddie's" managers had repeated offers from the Ministers and he, seeing the folly of his pagan ways, succumbed to Christian entreaties and was dubbed a Minister in the religious wars of the cage. Hence "Freddie's" path thru life has been crowned with roses, socially, athletically and last but not least, scholastically.

Sophomore History

ITH ranks somewhat depleted, but with spirit undaunted, the class of 1920 returned to begin the second lap of its career at Muhlenberg. Since the beginning of our college course, one third of our number have responded to our country's call. Thus we had only fourty-two men to welcome a large and promising band of Freshmen.

Notwithstanding these great odds, we entered the banner scrap with grim determination and gained the victory in the record time of thirty seconds. However, after valiantly struggling against overwhelming numbers, we lost the pole fight. But we came right back and easily vanquished the less-experienced Freshmen in the annual football game.

We were also equally successful in many other college activities. Our football programs and college calendars were received with enthusiasm everywhere. We are well represented on the Glee Club with six men. Altho we contributed but three men to the varsity football team, four of our members have made their "M" in basketball. We have also had ample representation in various other college activities.

Our college course is now half run. If the past may be used as a criterion for the future, surely those two years are an assurance of two more years of cur worthiness and devotion to our Alma Mater.

AWRIGHT COMPANY HELD

Freshman History

HE twenty-seventh day of September, nineteen hundred and seventeen marks an epoch in the history of Muhlenberg College. Upon that morning, when the class of nineteen hundred and twenty-one assembled to seek admittance into this classic abode of learning, they numbered seventy-two, the third largest of the fifty-four classes which entered Muhlenberg. College authorities as well as upper classmen were agreeably surprised, because all had expected a much smaller group of aspirants, due to the wholesale depletion in the ranks of college material by the Great War.

At once temporary officers were elected and the class was organized. The customary Sophomoric remonstrances were received good-naturedly and immediately we indulged in the various class contests. The banner rush resulted in a victory for the more experienced Sophomores but we easily over-powered them in the pole-fight. Football odds were against us because most of our football men made the varsity, and hence we were forced to use less experienced players. Nevertheless our efforts were well nigh successful. In logical succession our supremacy in basketball should be forthcoming. At least we are on a brilliant path to victory.

The representatives of the class on the football varsity were so numerous that it was frequently referred to as a Freshman Varsity. In addition the class has furnished about half of the basketball varsity as well as fine new material for the Glee Club.

Not only has the class displayed athletic ability but it is also scholastically inclined and has attained an excellent standing.

Our efforts thus far we believe to be preliminary to unusual accomplishments and we prophesy a glorious future for the class which lives up to its motto, "Non est vivere, sed valere vita,"—not only to exist but to amount to something in life,—not only for ourselves but for the welfare of Muhlenberg as well.

Resume of Football Season

PROF. WRIGHT

FORMIDABLE proposition faced Dr. Price this fall when he took hold of the available material and endeavored, against great odds, to produce a team that would uphold the standard set by former Muhlenberg teams. The entrance of this country into the world conflict carried off all but one of the varsity of the 1916 season. Things looked pretty blue but the few men from last year's squad, aided by a lot of green material, set to work to produce a team.

Dr. Price had a hard job on his hands until the advent of our new assistant coach, Dr. Wright, who took hold of things as the nothing had ever happened, and soon a team was shaped as the dawn of the first game approached and the spirits of the Muhlenberg rooters began to rise.

The first game of the season proved that the indomitable fighting spirit of Muhlenberg had not died out. Villa Nova, with a good number of veterans, was held to a scoreless game by the green team that represented the Cardinal and Gray. This was a feat that the teams for the past two years failed to accomplish and was a source of great encouragement to all interested.

The return of Gaston and the wonderful line plunging of Melick, assisted by the good work of the two new men, Bond and Parker, were the causes of the 18–7 victory over P. M. C. The work of the new line-up was a hundred per cent better than that of the first game. This instilled the Muhlenberg rooters with absolute confidence of a good season.

The renewal of friendly relations with the old rivals, F. & M., proved disastrous for them. Coach Price's men had the game well in hand from the start and the final score of 14-0 was largely due to the good work of Anderson and Lucas. Feldman, playing varsity for the first time, created no little interest in running back punts and he showed great promise of becoming a good open field runner.

The small but loyal band of rooters that accompanied the team to Lafayette on October 27 will vouch for the fact that it was the most exciting and interesting game of the season. It was a hard fought game from start to finish and the final score was always in doubt. Gaston, by means of two perfect placement kicks, won the day for Muhlenberg. The stellar playing of "Hughie" Bond, Carleton, Solomon and Nolde help to explain the defeat of Berryman's best.

On the following Saturday, Muhlenberg suffered the only defeat of the season. Price's men were outclassed in every way by the experienced Lehigh team which displayed a machine-like precision that dazzled the visitors up to the last few minutes of the game. "Hughie" Bond and "Dink" Feldman were the stars of the game. If it were not for the wonderful display of "shoestring" tackling by Feldman in the backfield, the score would have been more than 47-0.

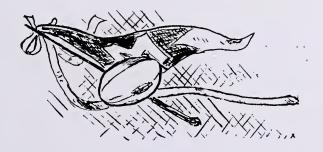

A green line-up, necessitated by the injuries brot on by the Lehigh game and subsequent scrimmages, handed Albright a 21–0 defeat. The visitors were outclassed and the greenness of the Muhlenberg line-up held the score down. The feature of the game was a sixty-five yard sprint performed by McGovern, who intercepted a hostile forward pass and rushed down the field for a touchdown.

The keen interest displayed in the Thanksgiving Day game revealed the determination of both sides to gain a victory as a fitting climax to an unusually successful season. The result of this determination was a battle royal in which both sides were evenly matched. The visiting team was speedier but the home team made up for this deficiency by its superior weight. Muhlenberg far exceeded the opponents in straight football but the latter profited by the so-called "breaks" of the game. The visitors goal was continually in danger thruout the last period and the final whistle was a source of great relief to Ursinus. Every man on the team gave the best that was in him. Wills, with his excellent tackling and batting down of the enemies forwards, was the star of the game and all look for great things from this "real find" of the season. Lucas and Feldman proved great factors in ground gaining, the former with his dependable line plunging, the latter with some clever end runs. The game ended in a scoreless tie and all concerned must wait for some future day to find out who of the two is the superior.

Thus Muhlenberg closed another glorious season. Out of the seven games played, the first and last ended in a tie, one was lost and four were won. Despite the fact that the squad was green and suffered heavily from injuries, nevertheless, it held up the standard set by former teams. Muhlenberg is proud of her showing this year and too much credit cannot be given to those who assisted in bringing about one of the most successful seasons in the history of the college.

P @@@ HE same conditions which were so evident last season were again the cause for the delay in the decision as to whether or not Muhlenberg was to have a basketball team this season. After considerable debate the Athletic Association decided to continue the sport on a smaller scale. Immediately after this decision, the student manager, Wuchter, made arrangements for games. But because of the lateness of the season most of the colleges had filled their schedules and it was an exceedingly difficult matter to secure games. The manager tried to secure a floor for home games, but failing in this respect, he was forced to schedule all games away from home.

Mr. Afflerbach of the faculty offered his services as coach and was immediately accepted. About two weeks before the opening contest with the University of Pennsylvania, a call for candidates brot out about fifty men. Since there was not a single man with any previous experience in the squad, the candidates were divided into groups and drilled in the rudiments of the game. Several practice games were played with the Allentown Y. M. C. A. and the Prep School which helped the team not a little in their development.

The first game, as usual, was with the University of Pennsylvania, champions of the 1918 Inter-Collegiate League. Muhlenberg played a remarkable game and, altho defeated 33-12, showed the possibilities of a winning team. After the Christmas holidays, Temple, Lehigh, Lafayette, Moravian, the Usaacs, and St. Josephs were met in succession. Altho the team was unable to defeat any of their more experienced rivals, they held every team to a very close score and in many instances outplayed them.

Thruout the season the wonderful playing of Freitag was the most significant feature. Nor can too much credit be given Green and Nolde and the rest of the team for their excellent showing. As usual, the scrubs were responsible to a large degree for the development of the varsity and they too deserve much praise.

The 1918 Glee Club

THE 1918 GLEE CLUB

USIC lovers of Eastern Pennsylvania were most agreeably surprised this year at the concerts given by the Muhlenberg College Glee Club. Because of unprecedented conditions existing at all colleges the public in general thot that apologies would be forthcoming. But they knew nothing of the personnel of our club, and hence the talent displayed by this popular college organization surpassed all expectations. The audience were all highly appreciative and the concerts were successes from every standpoint.

The program was well arranged and there was sufficient variety to please all critics. Unusual good judgement had been displayed in the selection of the club numbers. Every number on the program, the selections by the club, the instrumental numbers, vocal solos, the piano solo, flute solo, the skit and dialog, all redound to the glory and praise of the individual performers. Each member of the club contributed noticeably to the success of the concerts. But those who have been directing the activities of the club, the never-tiring faculty director, Professor Marks, the splendid and much appreciated work of the dramatic director, Professor Brown, the usual excellence of our student leader, Mr. Schwartz, and the heroic efforts of our business manager, Mr. Heiser all deserve special recognition.

The string quintette in its one selection and in the appropriate numbers offered in connection with the skit was always especially popular. They received the heartiest applause and were repeatedly called out for encores.

The piano solo by Schwartz received most favorable comment on all sides. His technique and interpretation of "La Campanella" was remarkable. Christ delighted everyone with his unique and novel performance on the flute.

Too much credit can hardly be given to Kline for his effective solo work. His "Viking Song" was always one of the distinctive hits of the evening. He has a fine baritone voice and his singing ,especially on the night of the Allentown concert, was that of an artist. Reichardt very capably took over these parts in Kline's absence during the latter part of the season.

The quartette, which likewise was a surprise to many, contributed largely to the success of the concerts. Regularly were they called out for three encores and their singing has been conceded by all to be the best that the club has had in recent years. Here again Reichardt must be congratulated on his readiness and willingness to fill the vacancy caused by Tapper's illness.

In a dialog entitled, "Abraham Murphy Cohen," Heiser and MacIntosh

In a dialog entitled, "Abraham Murphy Cohen," Heiser and MacIntosh were at their best. Here they ably demonstrated that their abilities lay not only in business management. A tremendous hit was scored by them at every concert and several times there was difficulty in convincing people that they were not borrowed from the Keith Circuit.

The big number was, as usual, the skit. This consisted of a well-written farce, "The Great Life," by Luther F. Hartzell, '18. The farce reflected some of the difficulties which the grind encounters in the typical college dormitories and was an artistic combination of melody and dramatic ability. All actors were admirably suited to their parts and the skit as a whole was everywhere an integral part of the program, and was well received by all.

Alpha Sigma Men in the Service

In honor of our former Alpha Sigma brothers who are now in the service of their eountry, we respectfully dedicate this page. Anxiously we await the day when they shall return to us and become our brothers in PHI KAPPA TAU.

Phi Kappa Tau History

OR a number of years prior to 1914 there was felt both within and without fraternal circles at Muhlenberg, the need of a third fraternal body. Herman W. Nenow and Henry Moehling, Jr., discussed the matter a number of times during the early part of the 1913–14 collegiate year and in January, 1914, made an effort to organize such a body. A number of men consented to the project and on March 16, 1914, a preliminary petition was sent to the faculty asking their consent. In the meantime the following men had organized themselves under the name of the Alpha Sigma Club of Muhlenberg College, at 1008 Hamilton Street, where rooms were engaged; Henry Moehling, Jr., J. Melvin Freed, Edgar Crouthamel, William J. Heilman, David G. Jaxheimer, Clifford E. Eichner, Urbanus S. Wirebach and John W. Early. On May 16, 1914, Alpha Tau Omega formally recognized Alpha Sigma as a third fraternal body at Muhlenberg and soon after this Dr. Haas, President of the College, gave his assurance that the faculty would recognize Alpha Sigma's petition the following school year. Upon this advice, a meeting was held on September 15, 1914, in Room 300A of the dormitories. A second petition was drawn up and sent to the faculty. Recognition was then received on September 17, 1914. The word "Club" was dropped and the organization used the name "Fraternity." Rooms were secured at 930 Hamilton Street. On November 1, 1914, the present house at 133 North Fifteenth Street was secured and formally opened on December 5, 1914. Since that time the Fraternity has steadily advanced, both in numbers and in standard. In February 1918 it had a roster of fifty-five members, thirty graduates and twenty-five Resident Brothers.

On March 22, 1918, Alpha Sigma received a charter from the Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity making her the Eta Chapter of that organization. Thus in four years, less ten days, Alpha Sigma has risen from a secretly organized local club to a chapter of one of the Nationals of the Inter-Fraternity Conference.

"Hard Shells Conceal Frecious Treasures."

MARCH

- 12. First anniversary of "Bill" Muthard's famous escapade in which he squandered one dollar and twenty cents on a girl he did not love.
- 13. MacIntosh stoutly declared that a man who had appendicitis was sick. Doctor Ettinger agreed.
- 14. The A. B. Chemistry class, ably assisted by Professor Fasig, moved from the lecture room to the laboratory.
- 15. "Charlie" Reichardt felt that he could not do justice in translating some German. Professor Fritsch then had a feeling that all of the previous year's work had gone to the dogs.
- 16. Be gosh, our friend Shupp left for a week-end visit to that Semitic metropolis, New York. On his return Shupp said that he had a "cuttin-up" time.
- 17. Leemhuis, '18, won second honor in the intercollegiate oratorical contest held at Gettysburg College.
- 18. The inclemency of the weather kept the usual flock of Sunday skirts away. A real calm settled over the dorms. But "Toats" was restless.

- 19. Goering told Professor Simpson that a gull was a bird. Inasmuch as T. D. alluded to a different species of gull, Charlie was the object of a huge laugh.
- 20. Hobart Aloeschus Tyson witnessed the movie spectacle, "The Daughter of the Gods." His comment was, "Some daughter!"
- 21. As a precautionary measure "Rube" Reichard attended gym class. "Pot" Schatz was so "fussed" thereupon, that he thought the Sophs were Seniors.
- 22. "Harry Herman and His Blue Sweater Jacket," an anthem, was sung by a male chorus at the opening exercises in chapel.
- 23. Again the pseudonym Albright was applied to "Mucker" Kline by T. D. On this occasion a tremendous demonstration took place.
- 24. "Yutsch" was discovered in the reading room exhaling the delicious fumes of a "Stinko" cigar.
- 25. The Sunday evening promenade on Hamilton Street has its charms. "Birdie" Fogel had his arms full of them.
- 26. Chapel exercises were exceedingly quiet today. Frank Brown was absent.
- 27. "Gussie" Heller launched his (yagt) in the Little Lehigh.
- 28. The Latin assignment was finished before the hour, owing to the unusual bravery of the '19 cavalry squadron.
- 29. As usual Dubbs had his quiet little snooze during the English lecture.
- 30. Track men were out in the afternoon. The chief attraction was the shot put by "Eddie," otherwise known as "Pop's" bricklayer.
- 31. Baseball candidates warmed up in the morning. "Mac" McGovern was the star swatter.

APRIL.

- 1. All Fool's Day. Several who belong to this class ought to be named, but lack of adequate space prevents such a committal.
- 2. The Ladies' Sewing Cirle met in Prof. Bossard's lecture room at ten o'clock. Those present were "Toates" Heuer, "Dutch" Wahl, and "Jack" Miller. Grossman acted as chairlady.
- 3. "Trig" Weinsheimer actually inhaled a cigarette. Naughty boy! What will mama say?
- 4. The Easter recess began. About all that happened was a general strategic retreat homeward, according to plan.

- 10. General Schwenk headed a motley parade of patriotic men down to the Square. Senator Rupp presented an inspiring and stirring message from the steps of the monument.
- 11. Military drill was resumed. The beautifully curved limbs of "Bips" Phillips, and Goering's wonderfully intelligent countenance were features.
- 12. Prof. Simpson "sat on" Frank Brown rather abruptly. However, nothing short of an earthquake could arouse Frank.
- 13. Hoodoo Day. Nothing turned up except "Upsilon" Stettler.
- 14. The following paragraph appeared in the "Morning Call": "Because she says Harry Herman threatened to break her face, Ida Kressly had him arrested for surety of the peace. He was arraigned before Alderman Bowen last evening and the case was settled. The couple board at the same house in the Fourteenth Ward."
- 15. "Haec est vita," said Horace. "Satan" Nase evidently had this in mind during his usual Sunday evening call. He was heard to say, "This is the life!"
- 16. Blue Monday. "Gus" Markley slept in every class. "Gus," dont study so late Sunday nights! She might ask you to bring your trunk along.
- 17. The annual inter-class track meet was a shade better than usual. '20 took first place, followed by '19, '17, and '18 respectively.
- 18. The Pagans defeated the Ministers in baseball by a 5-4 score. In the evening the class of '18 had its Ausflug. Among the missing were Baker, Harvey Snyder, Troutman, and De Long. Hartzell owed his life to the fact that he wore a life belt.
- 19. Many a head felt like a hurricane. Libation a la Dande Lion may have been the cause, but we doubt it.
- 20. Mark Wetherhold, one of the Allentown contingent and formerly of the Knutte Klub, attended classes in good order.
- 21. Most of the brethren were busy at their Saturday jobs, but a few of us loafed. Dubbs was among the latter.
- 22. "Devie" Devereaux spent the afternoon in sauntering up and down Chew Street.
- 23. Doctor Haas announced that a peculiar punishment awaited those who "cut" drill. Consequently, beans and "doggies" were served at supper.
- 24. The faculty squad executed some rare military tactics in drill period. "Prof." Kolesar was in the front rank next to "Pop" Reese, who was followed by Prof. Fasig.

Muhlenberg College ALLENTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA

The College

OSCAR F. BERNHEIM, A. B. Registrar

- 25. The Beelzebub fraternity held a student body meeting. "Mose" Wuchter in stentorian tones objected to the flagrant abuse of our beloved 'phone room by the downtrodden Prep boys.
- 26. We were very happy to have had in our midst this evening a gentleman who presented an inspiring message.
- 27. Candidates out for baseball were busy warming up. The most promising of the squad was Hoeppner, '20.
- 28. Wars and rumors of wars failed to disturb the usually quiet spring Saturday. Kleckner, '20's fourty-two centimeter facial cavity was absent from the dorms.
- 29. "Bumps" Gallenkamp disported himself in his B. V. D.'s on the front campus, much to the delight of "Micky" Fallon and his cohorts. "Cabby" missed two chances on Chew Street.
- 30. Drill was resumed after a respite of two days. Schwenk's plaintive "attenshone" rang strongly and clearly over the campus. His "hiup, hiup" almost coincided with the cadence.

MAY

- 1. Doctor Haas and a few other worthies reviewed the Muhlenberg contingent. Naturally, the executions were brilliant in the extreme.
- 2. M. C. A. meeting in the chapel. Among the notables present were Getz and Shupp. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
- 3. The squad drill faculty appeared en masse. Steady! The faculty drill squad, ably assisted by "Prof." Kolesar's trumpet, appeared in action.
- 4. Getz's herioglyphics in Greek failed to work for the first time in history. Arthur attributed it to a difficult passage.
- 5. Rumor has it that Herman proposed to Sally. Whether true or not this doughty champion surely had the blues.
- 6. Charlie Steel and Bill Taylor visited us long enough to tell us about their experiences in the hospital training station at Philadelphia.
- 7. A day that we shall never forget. Prof. Reese called for volunteers to answer our country's call for farm labor, soldiers, and sailors.
- 8. College was practically closed as far as real work was concerned. The big question was, "What shall I do.?"
- 9. The answer appeared in trunks, goodbyes, and "I enlisted."

- 10. The banner day. Twenty-five of our boys enlisted in some branch or other of the service.
- 11. Fish for dinner; eggs and cake for supper. Heckman and Haag warmly discuss the advantages and disadvantages of married life.
- 12. General exodus for home to spend the week-end. At the Prep.—A. H. S. track meet Goering entertains a fair maiden.
- 13. Grand parade down Chew Street to look over the offering of the season. Eddie goes to church for his.
- 14. News reaches college that our men in the Hospital Corps were on their way to Indiana.
- 15. Seniors are busy with their finals. French toast is served at supper. Christ patrols the grove for nocturnal prowlers.
- 16. Soup and pie for dinner. The faculty uses its spare time by plowing and sowing their little patches.
- 17. No classes on account of Ascension Day. Kolesar and Heiser hear ukeleles in the grove, and go out to investigate.
- 18. The Seniors finish their finals. Honors are announced, and there is general rejoicing.
- 19. Our diminutive Christ disports himself in a new, flashy necktie. He makes quite a hit with the boys.
- 20. Here the chronicle has another one on Christ, but we think that this gentleman has had enough, and so we censor the entry.
- 21. After a quiet day with "nothing stirring," our few but tried little band gathers at the Commons, and is served with a delightful supper of "doggies" and soup.
- 22. Lieutenant Young gives us advanced guard work, and we move on Cetronia.
- 23. College is becoming as dead as the proverbial door-nail. Things are brightened up a little by Sallie's cookery, but even that can't bring back the good old days.
- 24. The fast diminishing drill squad receives rifles, and they prove to be very cumbersome affairs. Bellan insists upon dropping his rifle on his toe.
- 25. Prof. Bailey and the student body move the specimens from the old biological lab. to the new quarters.
- 26. Bellan and Christ engage in a friendly argument, and it takes John ten minutes to decide to adhere to the advise of the Scriptures and turn the other cheek.

- 27. Doc. Haas dines with us; lettuce and custard pie adorn the tables. We hope that the doctor will come again.
- 28. Rain all day. Rifle drill is postponed, and we retire to our domiciles, hoping for something to turn up.
- 29. Last drill of the year is held. Lieutenant Young is given the long "Muhlenberg" and the thanks of the squad for his services.
- 30. Tennis aspirants repair the courts, and then stand guard to keep off the intruders from town—except the fair ones.
- 31. Lettuce, cake, and ice cream is served at dinner in honor of Miss Bernheim's birthday. Oh, if every day were only a birthday!

JUNE

1. At last the end is at hand. College closes for the term, and everybody packs up. There is no lingering about, waiting for something to happen.

SEPTEMBER

- 27. College opened. "Russ" Snyder displayed two virtuous habits which he had acquired during the summer, i. e., chewing and smoking.
- 28. The Frosh were entertained by the M. C. A. and "Joe" Kleckner. On the side, several Juniors had a good time by "slipping themselves" extra helpings of ice cream and pretzels.
- 29. George Klick averred that he kaaried many spuds during vacation. He's a Junior too.
- 30. Old Luther League acquaintances were renewed, at least those that had survived the vacation crisis. Among the survivors were Goering, Reichardt, and Krouse. Muthard "batched" it.

OCTOBER

- 1. Quite some number of Juniors gathered to hear Prof. Fasig's lecture in Physics. "Butch" Grembach returned to college.
- 2. First smoker of the season. Kidney Bray and Hinkey's ear were absent. First squelcher of the season—Doc. Wright chastises our exuberant Getz.
- 3. M. C. A. opens. Tyson and his splendid bass voice were croaking. Arner was in attendance.

- 4. The banner rush turned out to be a fiasco. Led by Nolde, the Sophs walked in after a preliminary barrage fire.
- 5. Cheer practice in the chapel. Tapper's aerial maneuvers and Wuchter's high-explosive chest led the howling mob.
- 6. Our team holds Villa Nova to a scoreless tie. Dessert was served at the Commons.
- 7. The weekly pilgrimage to Christ's church was led by Nase. There's a reason.
- 8. The Pagans begin intensive training for their coming clash with the Ministers. Spirit is running high. See "Yutch."
- 9. Shupp, Muthard, and Stettler join the ranks of the Ministers. Betting is now in favor of the celestials.
- 10. Student body meeting. Among the prominent politicians present was Fisher, '18.
- 11. Prof. Fritsch actually postponed a German class.
- 12. The Frosh had a merry time with the Sophs in the pole fight. Green and Van Zandt can testify to this.
- 13. Our team trounced P. M. C. by an 18–7 score. It is rumored that Hoeppner, '20, entertained a chorus girl.
- 14. MacIntosh and Goering held a lengthy discussion about wheel bases. Their wheels were running on flat tires. An Orwigsburg excursion visited "Fat" Edwards.
- 15. Doc. Haas lectured on things that elevate. Utz afterwards claimed that the joke was on the doctor.
- 16. F. & M. Smoker. Everybody happy over the chance to "cut" a few classes and calling it spirit.
- 17. MacIntosh votes solidly with the Freshmen. Reichardt seconds Mack's motion.
- 18. Shupp distinguishes himself in oratory. Bellis proved that a certain creek in the Lykens Valley meanders down to the ocean. Jentsch had his portion of cold slaw, thus saving the organization.
- 19. "Mucker" Kline attempted to awaken the dorms at six o'clock in the morning by singing in the arcade. It sounded like the duet of a hoarse raven and a screech owl.
- 20. F. & M. could not stand the pace. Result: 14–0 favor Muhlenberg. Denizens of Hamilton Street were treated to a real peerade.

- 21. A few of the boys went leaf-gathering. It is supposed that Brown gathered several varieties to himself.
- 22. Doctor Haas was at a loss to know why college was closed. He was referred to the F. & M. obsequies and the boisterous assemblage at the Orpheum.
- 23. Herman remarked that the boys had some tirade last evening. Lennox was "knocked out" in scrimmage.
- 24. MacIntosh had his hair cut. Brown had a shave. Mucker took a bath. And the fire went out.
- 25. The Sophs held a seance in East Greenville. Luckily for them a motor truck brought them home.
- 26. There were no announcements made at the Commons. Green was temporarily sick.
- 27. Charlie Schoenly was lord of the coal pile during the Ussac game. Whoopee! We trimmed Lafayette 6–0.
- 28. Social item: Getz spent the week-end at Kutztown. We wonder what "Sister" would say if she knew this.
- 29. A band of savages attempted to arouse the slumbering "pep" of the dorms by making some unearthly noises in the arcade. But the "monster celebration" petered out into a monster fizzle.
- 30. MacIntosh scored one on Doc Wright. All right. We pass on then to Stettler, the renowned logician of '19.
- 31. Fogel delves into the feline realm. Notwithstanding a few scratches, "Birdie" had the satisfaction of butchering the victim's hide and content. That's biology.

NOVEMBER

- 1. A mock trial was scheduled. However, the Frosh appeared in sufficient numbers so that the brave Sophs were disconcerted.
- 2. Lehigh Smoker. Krouse proved that the lords in "Love's Labour's Lost" pressed their suits.
- 3. Lehigh defeats us 47–0. No supper at the Commons. Privates Kehl Markley and Harvey Snyder visit us.
- 4. Milkless Sunday. Nolde studies faithfully in the evening. Sally wishes she could talk more.

- 5. No milk. Two speeches in chapel. The honor list of delinquents is posted.
- 6. Quiz in drama. Utz resolves to "cut" no more classes. Heller seconds the motion.
- 7. Doctor Haas meets us in Religion. He threatens to organize night classes. He discusses the theory of worship in the high places.
- 8. "Bill" Muthard confers with Prof. Fritsch on the question of kindergartens. The class in French is delighted over the word joujou.
- 9. Dubbs falls asleep in drama class. Dessert for dinner. "Oh Boy" is presented at the Lyric. Muhlenberg was prominent at the performance.
- 10. The '19 Pagan football team practises with the Sophs, and incidentally beats them 19–0. In a poorly played game the varsity defeats Albright 21–0.
- 11. Jentsch entertains some visitors. Reichardt takes charge of a young ladies' Sunday School class. Sinkers for supper.
- 12. Heiser tells Prof. Horn that he is carrying too much work which interferes with his outside activities. "Gentlemen, a lactometer floats; it floats!"
- 13. Will Kemp and his trick dog were the topic for discussion in drama. In Logic Stettler proves that thunder is caused by successive vacuums.
- 14. "Pot" Schatz gives the command "Whoa!" Schwartz is elected mascot of the Pagan football team. "Beg Pardon" Grossman executes some rare military tactics.
- 15. "Bill" Van Zandt believes that Shakespeare wrote rhymed blank verse. Frank Brown appears at supper in Nature's dress suit.
- 16. Cabellus and Myer Grossman attend chapel. "Razor" Grossman purchases a hair cut. "Bips" Phillips powders and perfumes for his picture. Fisher drives a "Schimmel" about town, and delivers phone books on the side.
- 17. The cross-country team takes third place at the inter-collegiate race held at Easton. At the Usaac game the coal pile was much in demand.
- 18. Charles Reichardt entertains his Sunday School class on the campus. Jentsch "butts in." Muthard remains in his room "peeping."
- 19. Krouse, in explaining the fruit of love, says that beans were the responsible agency.
- 20. "Willie" Muthard becomes acquainted with the rites of Gambrinus. Subsequently he attends a movie at the Hipp. After the performance "Willie" waits at the side door for Theda Bara,

- 21. The Ministers hold secret practice for the first time in their existence. Nothing could be learned about their tactics.
- 22. Pagan-Minister football game. A dispute arose about the score, but the official count was 25–0, in favor of the Pagans.
- 23. "Red" Murtagh wanted to know whether the Freshman banquet was to take place in the evening. The service flag was dedicated.
- 24. A conglomeration of erstwhile football stars headed by Green were defeated by A. H. S., 16–0. Getz and Tyson have a session at "Petie" Schmoyer's.
- 25. Herman was in doubt about whether Christmas fell on the twenty-sixth or twenty-seventh. "Birdie" Fogel migrates to Hecktown.
- 26. Rumors of a Soph. Banquet are found to be groundless. Butz and Shelly were then able to sleep in peace.
- 27. Cheer practice in chapel sounded more like a series and syncopated warbles. Doctor Haas holds religion classes in the evening. Bellis' planetary brilliancy was blinding.
- 28. "Eddie" and Fogel step out on a date. Next morning they did not show up for breakfast.
- 29. Ursinus, 0—Muhlenberg, 0. Hartzell appears at the game in a dress collar minus a derby and cane. Bellis meets Bruce's Aphrodite.

DECEMBER

- 3. Doctor Haas realistically illustrates the effects of drinking soma. "Birdie" comes back from his vacation feeling rather boisterous. He sleeps in "Eddie's" fireplace.
- 4. Sauer kraut for dinner. Jentsch laments the fact that Kaiser Bill could not be with us.
- 5. The Glee Club sings at A. H. S. Doctor Wright presents an equation which "stumps" "Trig" Weinsheimer. "Trig" is hurt to the quick.
- 6. The student-body and community were shocked to learn that "Russ" Snyder spent the evening at Mealey's. Stettler performs a facial contortion in Religion; result—one empty milk can.
- 7. The Glee Club sings at the Orpheum. Kleckner, '20, is interested in the female performers' attire. Doctor Haas calls Heiser Mr. Thing.
- 8. First snow of the season. Brommer is lost in a two-inch drift. Van Zandt and a few other nuts, such as Hoeppner, went skating.

- 9. Goering misses breakfast for the first time in two years. Charlie is parting his hair in the middle now. Perhaps this was the reason for his absence.
- 10. In Religion, Weinsheimer presents a lengthy, tedious, painstaking, minute and what not paper on the laws of some Babylonian high-brow. Doctor Haas is delighted.
- 11. The Glee Club sings at the "bug house." Tapper returns safely. Getz appears with a hair cut.
- 12. For infringing upon one of the laws of Zoroaster, Herman is awarded two thousand stripes. Fogel is stranded in a religion 'twixt heaven and hell. Cope gets as far as the bridge. Bellis goes over.
- 13. The Junior Oratorical Contest, preceded by a concert given by a jazz orchestra, thrills a number of spectators. Joseph Kleckner takes first money. Rumors of a Frosh banquet.
- 14. A big snow blocks traffic. Those going home for Christmas walk to Seventeenth Street for a car. Harry Herman entertains an actress on his way home. MacIntosh stranded in Emaus.

JANUARY

- 3. College re-opens. The boys return with their suit cases laden with a store of eats.
- 4. The Glee Club rehearses at Lansdale. Sally fails to appear for breakfast.
- 5. Temple University barely defeats our basketball team by a 35–29 score.
- 6. East Berks is entertained by a string concert held in Hartzell's salon. A real dinner is served at the Commons; it was Sally's day off.
- 7. Getz refuses to play on the Minister's basketball organization. Prof. Horn discovers that ice is treacherous, especially to pedestrians.
- 8. Doc. Wright delivers a nauseating lecture on butter and milk. The Frosh actually hold their banquet. "Hopper" is unceremoniously yanked out of Luther League, and escorted to the festal board.
- 9. The countryside is searched far and near for beds, springs, rails, and what not. Ask the Fresh. Special officers Bellan and Fisher take down the names of the miscreants for their rogue's gallery.
- 10. Otto Nolde is fined three dollars by Bellan, payable on demand. Utz executes a difficult slide in front of East Berks. Result—one arm badly bent.

SERVING THE NATION.

Of the several ways in which the Lehigh Valley Railroad has served the nation in the present crisis, one of the most important has been the transportation of coal—a commodity essential to home and industry alike.

During 1917, approximately 6,000 Lehigh Valley coal trains—or an average of nearly seventeen a day—carried 13,969,507 tons of coal, an increase of 2,000,000 tons over the preceding year. Of the domestic sizes of anthracite, the Lehigh Valley handled 10,081,014 tons—600,000 tons more than any other railroad.

This fuel carrying record, in the face of great transportation difficulties, maintains the Lehigh Valley's reputation as "The Road That Does Things."

- 11. "Razor" Grossman attempts "to put one over" on Prof. Brown; whereupon gentleman first mentioned eats crow.
- 12. "Peanut" Brommer organizes a bunch to raise inferno in the Lyric. Our head cook had a sweet encounter with terra firma on her way to the Commons.
- Hartzell fittingly celebrates his birthday by spending the day at Quakertown.
- 14. Doc. Haas, in a chapel lecture, recommends that the students be fed pap at the Commons. Sally balks.
- 15. Mike spreads ashes on the ice for the benefit of Her Royal Nibs, Miss Salina Kistler. Moravian college quintet defeats us 32–22.
- 16. Bedlam reigns in Religion class. "Gussie" Heller gets in via the basement while "Yutsch" uses the elevator.
- 17. "Skin Flint" Lynch is awarded the cash prize of ten washers offered by the Freshman class to the biggest nincumpoop on its roll.
- 18. Hazleton welcomes the Glee Club. "Druckie" renews old acquaintances. "Christ "gets next" to a real one.
- 19. Gates takes a shower. The Sophs decide to pay the fine inflicted upon them by the student council, and thereby relieve the fears of that august body.
- 20. Goering returns from his Sunday evening call at the early hour of one-thirty. Sharkey makes a trip to Barnes' Station and returns intact.
- 21. Jentsch arrives late at dinner. As a result poor Werner is forced to rely on "seconds" for his meal. For a time it was thought that a storm would break.
- 22. Prof. Bailey lectures in chapel. On the front bench were Nase, Frank Brown, Heller, Dubbs, and Utz. Prof. Fritsch embellished the lecture somewhat.
- 23. Doc. Haas gives the Juniors an open book exam. Jentsch "kicks himself" for having stayed up many a night in order to get out his Religion.
- 24. The Seniors hit the spots high in the exam. on "Trends of Thought and Christian Truth." Most of them "get away with it," but Davie" sticks to ye old right valiant method.
- 25. Did you see the Frosh taking the Algebra exam under Prof. Bauman? Open book exams may be the thing, but in the department of Applied Mathematics legerdemain is the only solution.

- 26. The Usaacs defeat us by a 49-6 score. "Red" Murtagh learns that we have a basketball team.
- 27. The Glee Club sings at the Lyric for the benefit of the denizens of the Sixth Ward. A. C. W. is also present. "Eddie" said that there were some "Snice" girls in the bunch.
- 28. Herman and Dimmick stage a one-round bout in the kitchen. Snyder and Bellis perform a surgical operation upon Krouse. Glee Club at Lebanon, where Christ behaves scandalously after the concert.
- 29. Herman claimed that the word chivalry comes from the French word Cabellus, meaning horse. The Sophs go to Chemistry exam. with something up their sleeves. They came out down in the mouth.
- 30. The Juniors passed on to Doc. Wright, and held a session under his tutelage. Since it was an open book affair, nobody was caught.
- 31. Bill Muthard and his assistants spent the afternoon at the draft board, smoking "Between the Acts," and occasionally writing out cards.

FEBRUARY

- 1. The Glee Club presides at the Lyric. Heiser persisted in emerging from the scenes unattended. Christ held the audience spell-bound with his pipings. A galaxy of feminine admirers applauded his efforts.
- 2. In spite of zero temperature a few of the boys were present at breakfast. Jentsch was among them. We might also mention Goering.
- 3. Herman presents an address to his charge somewhere between Allentown and Center Valley.
- 4. The Glee Club favors Quakertown with a concert. Since the boys came right back, there was little chance at the popular after-concert pastime.
- 5. Frank Brown comes late to classes as usual. "Gus" Markley, his second, was in hot pursuit. Stettler decides to forget his queen in order to do more efficient work.
- 6. A band of would-be celestial observers renews its acquaintance with Prof. Bauman. Nase wanted to know how the sun looked from the north pole. The Frosh defeat the Sophs in basketball, 22–18.
- 7. Krouse "cuts" classes. Brown celebrates his birthday. Edwards congratulates him with a firm, smooth, and sticky grip.
- 8. Butz sees Mary Garden in "Thais." He spreads the news among the Frosh, and an admiring throng of them "rush" the Strand.

- 9. The Seniors are entertained by Doc. Hass in Ethics. The astute Seniors attempt to "trip up" the doctor, but fail. Swavely scours the dorms for some card players.
- 10. Doc. Haas inspects the kitchen and the coal-pile at supper time. Fisher quickly divests himself of his sweater jacket.
- 11. The Army and Navy hymn books make their first appearance in chapel. Doc. Haas serves as monitor, and ejects several hapless individuals. Prof. Fritsch leads the singing—a la Rodenhaver.
- 12. Real doughnuts are served at supper. Afterwards, the Glee Club performs at "Joe's" place. MacIntosh had to retire to the curbing.
- 13. After a prolonged absence, Charlie Reichardt returns to the domains of Prof. Fritsch. Réjoicing ensues. John Bellan, a crystallite, has a great time with Prof. Bauman. Swavely is emitted from the kitchen.
- 14. "Russ" Snyder receives an anonymous valentine. Smith amuses the class in psychology with the theory that innumerable amoebas constitute the human body. Jentsch "cuts" German, and a flood of tears followed.
- 15. Prof. Fasig loses one of his tuning forks. Fogel is suspected of using it as a curling iron. Markley saunters into the lecture room with a bored attitude.
- 16. Ice-skating on the football field for the first time in history. Snyder learns how to play poker.
- 17. Hartzell discovers why he doesn't attend the Orpheum—too much humor in the kitchen. Salome pudding for dinner.
- 18. Bellis is ejected from the Commons by the Senior Class. "Rev." Bellan entertains the Wota Club royally. Brown, Snyder, and Druckie attempt to interfere, but they are entirely ignored.
- 19. The Sophs are again "nosed out" by the Frosh in basketball. Score, 36–35. MacIntosh decides that Homer had nothing on him; so he suggests some revisions to Prof. Horn.
- 20. The water supply is cut off. A puddle in the grove served as an excellent lavatory for many. The class in astronomy takes a hand at antiphonal chanting.
- 21. Candidates for the track team warm up in the gym. "Moonie" Bachman shows great form. Signs of the millennium, when Charlie Reichardt could not get six men out of the entire student body to attend a free chicken supper.

- 22. The following poster appeared on the bulletin board: "Wanted—Men accustomed to horses, to enlist in the U. S. Army." "Mickey" Bollman was undecided about enlisting in this branch.
- 23. Chester Hill is afflicted with pink eyes, and gropes his way about the campus behind a pair of green spectacles. Everybody casts longing glances upon the almost extinct coal-pile.
- 24. Signs of Spring—several fair damsels saunter thru the campus; but, alas, no one takes them up. Christ could not be found. "Satan" Nase disappears, presumably to Phoenixville.
- 25. Wills presents a freak who increased his height from normal to six and one-half inches, and who stopped his heart from breathing for one-half a minute. Getz, after a prolonged absence, returns to college. Nase still missing.
- 26. Speaker in chapel. No supplementary remarks were made. "Butch" Kemmerer presides behind the counter, and sells a nickel's worth of gum drops. No signs of Nase.
- 27. Nase shows up for dinner. For two reasons, the Frosh "get away" with the Sophs' ice-cream. The Ministers defeat the Pagan basketballers by a 14–5 score.
- 28. Heller appears with a limping leg; "Eddie" with a scratched eye-lid; and Getz with two punctured eye-balls.

MARCH

- 1. Hartzell recovers from a severe attack of Bethlehemitis. Fiedler is visited by his two sisters. "Miss Springtime" generously patronized.
- 2. Bellis: Have you read about this great war hero, General Debility? Herman: No, there's so much war news, one can't read all of it.
- 3. The following notice appeared on the bulletin board: "Lost, five dollars (three stiff and two soft)." Wohlsen and Hoffberger brave a cold March wind in cream-colored trousers and overcoats.
- 4. Romig scouts around for a Greek translator, and finally finds "Davie." Bellan tells a story of questionable origin at the Wota Club's meeting. Prof. Fasig presents an illuminating lecture in chapel.
- 5. Signs of Spring: 1919 Selects its Ausflug committee. The Glee Club sings in chapel. Prof. Fritsch "put the damper" on an encore. The arcade finally is "lit up."

- 6. A real egg is discovered in the vicinity of the Commons. Knauss actually seconds a motion made in student body meeting. "Hopper" delivers a lecture at the M. C. A.
- 7. Abele searches the dorms for a Greek "trot." Two freaks are discovered: Fogel, who can blow air thru his ear, and MacIntosh who winks his eye whenever he touches his forehead with a comb! After a long absence, Shankweiler returns to Prof. Fritsch's fold.
- 8. Doc. Ettinger blasts all hopes of having a dance under the auspices of Hartzell. The Rusty Five sojourn to Easton by fits and starts, and at last settle down to a night of revelry.
- 9 The Rusty Five return from Easton in time to serenade the breakfasters at the Commons. The usual Saturday evening poker gang assembles in Bellis' sanctum.
- 10. A high wind on Hamilton Street entices Muthard to go to town to investigate. Birdie Fogel "flags" every skirt he sees, in a vain hope of finding consolation.
- 11. "Gus" Markley has a glorious time burning caps, rubber heels, books, tablets, and what-not in Physics class. So, we pass on then to the 1920 calendar.

IF

I could cheer like Getz, I could eat like Brown, I could orate like Fogel, I could bluff like "Druckie," I could "kidd" like Goering, I could throw the bull like Kline, I were as handsome as "Eddie" Arner, I could tell stories like Bellis, I were as noisy as Romig, I were a born orator like Shupp, I were as big a fusser as Snyder, I were as popular at A. C. W. as Stettler, I could warble like Reichart, I could use the greek "pony" like Krouse, I had an Aphrodite like Mac's, I could stump??? the professors like Muthard, I had a nickname as appropriate as "Satan" Nase's,

I WOULD DIE HAPPY!
